PART-A

Verbal Ability and Comprehension

Directions : Choose the correct option for the questions (1-4) below and write the answer in the given space.

Read the following stories and select the correct options to answer the questions that follow.

Next to water, tea is the most commonly consumed beverage in the world. Tea offers important health benefits. Its benefits were first discovered by the Chinese Emperor Shen Nung, who declared that it gave one vigour of body contentment of mind and determination of purpose. Today, there is ample proof that tea in its many forms possesses a number of health benefits from supporting the immune system to reducing the risk of cancer, to helping prevent tooth decay.

What makes tea such a healthy drink? The star compounds are called catechins. Those are antioxidants that help prevent cell damage by harmful molecules called free radicals. Tea can be black, green or red and is derived from a warm weather evergreen tree known as Camelia Sinensis. The more processing tea leaves undergo, the darker they become. Green tea is the least processed tea. It is simply steamed or boiled quickly and offers the maximum healing adding other things like milk and sugar. Some people who do not like its taste, add honey to it. Green tea is made. In modern days, green tea is the most popular among the health-conscious. It is mostly consumed plain, i.e., without adding other things like milk and sugar. Green tea is made available in tea bags which simply let the tea infuse in hot water.
